

Book Week

begins 23rd April 2018

Monday – Dressup Day – Book Character Themed

Come dressed as your favourite book character! If you don't have the clothes to match, don't worry! Over the weekend create yourself a mask, make their tools and weapons with paper and cardboard – Be Creative!

There will be a dress-up parade at assembly on Monday!

Parents are welcome to come to the assembly and see the parade!

Yummy Morning Tea Monday morning

We are asking parents to donate cookies, cakes, yummy creations and of course fresh fruit on Monday Morning before school.

At morning tea these will be shared with the children!

Book Corner – Every lunchtime during the week

A special comfy book corner, with cushions and mats, will be created during the lunch hour somewhere in the playground. (in the library if it's raining).

There will be a selection of books from the library for you to read, or bring your book from home.

Share the story you are reading with friends and family during your lunchtime!

Parents are very welcome to come and read to, or with the children!

Picnic lunch on Friday

We are finishing off the week with a Picnic lunch on Friday and fun activities during the lunch hour.

Bring your own lunch, sit outside with your friends and family and enjoy the sun!

After you have eaten there will be fun outdoor activities to play and of course the book corner if you want some quiet time!

Parents are welcome to come and join their children for the picnic and enjoy the fun activities and book corner!
